

Masterchef

Are you the next Masterchef? Did you follow the participants from around the world while they were fighting at the stoves? Now you have the opportunity to design your own battle against colleagues and clients.

Based on TV3's popular TV-show, Masterchef, we offer your company a unique opportunity to experience this culinary universe at the original Masterchef kitchen in Copenhagen.

At the Masterchef studio there are many possibilities.

Try, for example, our "Mystery Box". Each group gets a "mystery box" which will be the cornerstone of the cooking session. Right from the beginning of the battle, we guarantee that you will feel the judges breathing down your neck while you create tasty dishes in just 90 minutes!

Just like the TV-show, there will, of course, be a host and a judge so that the battle runs by the book and absolutely fair. The only thing that you have to make sure of is a great mood, creativity, fighting spirit and the will to battle for victory and glory. Are you looking for a relaxed and cosy experience we will of course make the necessary adjustments of the competition.

The Masterchef studio can also be used as the setting for a cosy dinner event where you can lean back and experience some entertaining show-cooking by our chefs.

Furthermore, it is possible to invite celebrities – such as former participants or winners and, of course, the real Masterchef TV-judges.

If you want to immortalize your battle we will record the entire process. Afterwards, you will receive the footage in an edited version, so that you have your own "Masterchef program"
