

Citadellet

Are you into good food, excitement and activities in middle aged surroundings, or do you need an exiting location for a conference or an employee day? On the Citadel all of this and more is possible! The fortress is an old castle, build in 1549, and its history creates authentic and exciting settings for many different types of events.

Behind the deep moat, thick walls and the heavy iron gates lies a fully restored fortress with modern conveniences as electricity, heat and toilets. The castle square, the many moats and the fortress give you innumerable possibilities both before and after sunset. Experience among other things:

Prisoner on the Citadel

Just like the success on television "Fangerne på Fortet" you will be divided into teams with your own escutcheon. Everything is ready for a mysterious and eventful hunt on the old fortress. You will be surrounded by all kinds of people from the middle age, finding keys for cryptic riddles and solve tasks to beat the other teams.

Behind lock and bolt

How would it actually be to be locked up in a dungeon living on water and bread? The court on the Citadel will give you the answer, as you, as a consequence of your crimes, are convicted for life to stay in the dungeon of the citadel. The only way to get out is to solve the tasks given to you.

The battle at Landskrona

There are no room for weak people if you are about to join the Swedish army. Denmark and Sweden are at war. In order to win the war against Denmark, you will get incorporated in General Lindenbergs skilled and hard training program, which was required at that time, while Danish canons rumble in the back. The regiment that fulfils the disciplines in the best way will be personally rewarded by the general.

With the above mentioned activities Vice Versa offers you the possibility of travelling back in time and become acquainted with knights, fair maidens and at the end of the day with a fantastic middle age banquet. According to tradition the food is served on big dishes of wood, while you enjoy wine in tin cups or enjoy gourmet courses on the shining polished silver plates, while the merry lure is playing in the back.
