Golf with a twist

Golf is getting more and more popular even among "ordinary people" and gives the perfect setting for customers and clients to get to know each other in a relaxed atmosphere. The players can also upgrade their skills in company with professional players at Pro-Am-tournaments.

To get your golf event to set out from the crowd and leave a permanent memory for the participants, we propose a concept strengthening both the social and the sportive part of the golf play. Professional film makers are following the game and at the end of the day they create a humoristic movie of the fun episodes on the golf course, which will give the group a great opportunity to get a good laugh during or after the following dinner party.

If the participants are interested in a professional evaluation of their play, the film makers can additionally film their swing from several angles and get a pro to comment on the tape afterwards. This material can be delivered to each of the players afterwards and will serve as a useful tool and equally good memory of the tournament. Your company could also choose to distribute your own information material on the same disc – it will most likely get more attention than it usually does!

We customize everything according to your demands: We can take care of the entire event or just supplement your traditional tournament, so it won't become just another one of its kind.

Vice-Versa will assist you with every step in the organization and with a smile assure that everybody enjoys the day.
