

Lodge Night

Prepare yourself for a journey into the mysterious and secret universe of the occult, where unity and secrets get a whole new meaning.

Nobody knows what will happen during the evening or where the secret meeting will take place since everybody needs to be accepted into the secret lodge. All participants will be divided into small groups and participate in various rituals where they will complete tasks and answer questions. If they pass they will be invited into the secret rooms of the lodge where the dinner and subsequently the party will take place.

When everyone has been accepted as a member of the brotherhood, they will be handed over a special lodge cape and a half mask. Now everybody is part of the brotherhood as equal members.

During the evening there will be various happenings. Perhaps some of the brothers in the lodge, which no one quite knows, get into a dangerous fight. Anything can happen during this mysterious and festive night of the lodge.

Welcome to your own occult lodge night!
