

Murder mystery

Let the mystery surround you while entering a murder mystery, well-supported by our team of professional actors.

In other words, prepare yourself for a “deadly” exiting dinner in one of our chosen locations; it could be an old castle, manor or your domicile in disguise.

In the authentic surroundings you will experience a fantastic drama that takes place right in front of your eyes, and you will get the feeling of “wickedness and distrust” spreading while the participants get more and more involved in the action.

As the evening unrolls, new members are joining the dinner party. Strange, suspicious and not at least funny characters are on the guest list.

Suddenly a body is discovered. The police are being called, and by the dinner table you get involved in the search for the MURDERER!

Everybody is under suspicion and nobody can leave the place before the mystery is solved. This gives you the opportunity to play detectives... or is there someone among you who are not telling the truth? Clues and little hints are revealed during the evening, while other dramatic events happen and perhaps new bodies are found. Watch out! You might die laughing.

The event can be combined with an overnight stay where the nights' sleep might be interrupted by further occurrences.